

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is clearly a misuse of the public airwaves. Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and is obligated by law to serve the public interest.

One-sided programs, like "Stolen Honor", do not serve the public interest and are harmful to our democracy. If Sinclair insists on airing "Stolen Honor" before the presidential election they should also air a pro-Kerry program like "Going Upriver".

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. They show why the license renewal process needs to involve more than a returned postcard. Thank you.
